

Monarchs, pollinators and More

May 6th

10 am—3 pm

Witt Stevens Jr. Nature Center
602 President Clinton Ave, Little Rock, AR

Come by to learn about the key ingredients to creating a monarch and pollinator friendly habitat in your own backyard.

- ⇒ Free cherrybark oak tree (first 100 people)
- ⇒ Discounts to local restaurants and nurseries
- ⇒ Drawings for free native plants
- ⇒ Certify your backyard habitat and receive a free Arkansas Wildlife Federation membership

Expert speaker panel

10:30-11:30 am

Hear from speakers about:

- The monarch butterfly in Arkansas
- Using native plants to attract butterflies and pollinators
- Steps to create your backyard wildlife habitat

Free Trees
Kids activities
Drawings
Local discounts

Thank you to the many sponsors for making this event possible:

Since 1936, AWF has been promoting conservation, responsible management, and sustainable use of Arkansas' fish, wildlife, natural resources and outdoor recreational opportunities through education and advocacy.

www.ARWild.org

